VERDICT FOR DEFENDANTS.

Suit Involves Water Rights in Vicinity of Bingham Canyon.

The court found for the defendants yes terday in the case of George E. Chandler and Martha J. Watson against the Utah Copper company and the West Mountain Placer Mining company. The action involved water rights in the vicinity of Bingham canyon. The plaintiff sued for $150 a month rental for twenty-six months and for $25,000 damages for the misappropriation of water. It was alleged that by reason of sinking of shafts by the Utah Copper company and the pumping out of water the tunnels driven by the plaintiff were rendered practically useless.

I purchased an outfit, and before I had used the bottle I noted a marked relief.

noted a marked relief.

"I used it for a month or so, and thought I was cured, and stopped using it for a year or so. Thought I was getting catarrh again, and started using it again, and I keep it in the house and use it every morning once a day, and keep myself clear of catarrh. I consider it the best catarrh medicine that is used. I have often recommended it to my friends. I am 81 years old. I came to California in 1839, and, of course, am not as vigorous as I was 58 years ago. My address is 841 4th St. Yours truly, W. Mock."
